We agree to pay benefits subject to the provisions, definitions, limitations, and conditions of the master policy. This section tells You the meaning of special words and phrases used in this Certificate. To help You recognize these special words and phrases, the first letter of each word, or each word in the phrase, is capitalized wherever it appears.

Accident or Accidental means a sudden, unexpected event that was not reasonably foreseeable.

Actively at Work or Active Work means that you are:

1. performing the normal duties of your occupation; and
2. working the number of hours set forth in the Application.

Application means the document which sets forth the eligible classes, the amounts of insurance, and other relevant information pertaining to the plan of insurance for which the Policyholder applied. The Application is attached to and forms a part of this Policy, and shall include any subsequent amendments to the Application.

Base Annual Salary means the gross annual compensation prior to before-tax payroll deductions, if any, which an Insured earns from his occupation with the Policyholder.

It does not include Salary from overtime, bonuses or any other form of extra pay. However, if an Employee's Salary is based in whole or in part on commissions, Base Annual Salary will include the amount paid in commissions during the preceding twelve-month calendar period. An Employee's deferred contributions to a 401K plan or salary reduction contributions to a cafeteria plan which are maintained by the Policyholder will not be deducted when calculating gross annual compensation.

Increases to Base Annual Salary which result in a benefit increase of $50,000 or greater and are above the guarantee issue amount will be subject to evidence of insurability satisfactory to Us before the increased benefit can become effective. Receipt of premium before we have approved any evidence of insurability will not constitute acceptance and does not guarantee issuance of any benefit amount prior to our approval.

Basic Weekly Wage means the gross weekly compensation prior to before-tax payroll deductions, if any, which an Insured earns from his occupation with the Policyholder.

It does not include compensation from overtime, bonuses or any other form of extra pay. However, if your compensation is based in whole or in part on commissions, Basic Weekly Wage will include the weekly average paid in commissions during the preceding twelve-month calendar period. Your deferred contributions to a 401K plan or salary reduction contributions to a cafeteria plan which are maintained by the Policyholder will not be deducted when calculating gross weekly compensation.

Base Annual Salary/Basic Weekly Wage for each Insured who is a partner means the Insured's annual/average weekly compensation from the partnership during the calendar year prior to the date of the Insured's loss, as reported on the partnership federal income tax return as the "net Salary (loss) from self-employment" for that year.

If an Insured was not a partner during the calendar year prior to the date of loss, Base Annual Salary/Basic Weekly Wage means the Insured's annual/average weekly compensation (excluding dividends, capital gains, and return of capital) from the partnership prior to the date of the Insured's loss, determined in accordance with the terms of the applicable partnership agreement. In the event of a disagreement between Us and the claimant, an adjustment will be made, if warranted, after the Insured's subsequent federal income tax return is submitted to Us.

No benefits are payable when any of the above calculations result in an amount less than zero.

DEFINITIONS (TX)

Base Annual Salary/Basic Weekly Wage for each Insured who is a sole proprietor or shareholder in a Subchapter S corporation or a member in a limited liability company means the Insured's annual/average weekly net taxable income (excluding dividends, capital gains, and return of capital) derived from the Policyholder for the calendar year prior to the date of the Insured's loss, as reported on his federal income tax return. The Insured's annual/average weekly net taxable income equals A minus B, where:

A = The Insured's annual/average weekly taxable income derived from the Policyholder for the prior calendar year (excluding dividends, capital gains, and return of capital), as reported on the Insured's federal income tax return; and

B = The Insured's annual/average weekly deductible work expenses attributable to his work for the Policyholder during the prior calendar year, as reported on the Insured's federal income tax return.

If an Insured was not a sole proprietor or shareholder in a Subchapter S corporation or a member in a limited liability company during the calendar year prior to the date of the Insured's loss, Base Annual Salary/Basic Weekly Wage means an Insured's annual/average weekly net taxable income derived from the Policyholder for the period he was a sole proprietor or shareholder in a Subchapter S corporation or a member in a limited liability company prior to the date of the Insured's loss. The Insured's annual/average weekly net taxable income will be based on the taxable income derived from the Policyholder for the period of the Insured's work as a sole proprietor or shareholder in a Subchapter S corporation or a member in a limited liability company for You, taking into account his deductible work expenses attributable to his work for the Policyholder during the same period.

No benefits are payable when any of the above calculations result in an amount less than zero.

Contributory means you pay a portion of the premium for this insurance coverage.

Employee means an Actively at Work full-time employee whose principal employment is with the Employer, at the Employer's usual place of business or such place(s) that the Employer's normal course of business may require, who is Actively at Work for the minimum hours per week as stated in the Application and is reported on the Employer's records for Social Security and withholding tax purposes.

Injury means bodily injury resulting directly from an Accident and independently of all other causes.

Insured means an Employee covered under the Policy.

Male Pronoun whenever used includes the female.

Policy means the contract between the Policyholder and Us including the attached Application, which provides group insurance benefits.

You or Your means the Employee to whom this Certificate has been delivered.

ELIGIBILITY AND EFFECTIVE DATE PROVISIONS (TX)

ELIGIBILITY

All Employees who belong to an eligible class and work the minimum number of hours as set forth in the Application are eligible for group insurance. An Employee must be Actively at Work for his insurance coverage to become effective.

EMPLOYEE EFFECTIVE DATE OF COVERAGE

(Noncontributory Benefits)

If you are Actively at Work, you will become insured for Noncontributory benefits under the Policy on the day following completion of the Employee waiting period, if any, set forth in the Application.

If you waive all or a portion of your Noncontributory coverage and choose to enroll at a later date, you are considered a late applicant and must furnish evidence of insurability satisfactory to Us before coverage can become effective. Coverage will become effective on the date We determine that the evidence is satisfactory and We provide written notice of approval.

EMPLOYEE EFFECTIVE DATE OF COVERAGE

(Contributory Benefits)

You may apply for Contributory insurance coverage at any time. Your coverage will become effective as follows, provided you are Actively at Work on that date:

1. If you sign the enrollment form on or before the end of the waiting period, if any, as stated in the Application, coverage will become effective on the day following completion of the waiting period.
2. If you sign the enrollment form after the end of the waiting period, but within 31 days after that day, coverage will become effective the date you sign the enrollment form.
3. If you sign the enrollment form following this 31-day period, you are considered a late applicant and must furnish evidence of insurability satisfactory to Us before coverage can become effective. Coverage will become effective on the date We determine that the evidence is satisfactory and We provide written notice of approval.

DEFERRED EFFECTIVE DATE

You must be Actively at Work on the date your initial coverage or any increases in coverage are scheduled to begin. If:

1. you are absent from Active Work on the date such coverage would otherwise become effective; and
2. your absence is caused by an injury, illness or layoff,

the effective date of any initial coverage or increased coverage will be deferred until the first day you return to Active Work. You will be considered Actively at Work if you were actually at work on the day immediately preceding:

If your coverage ends due to termination of employment you must meet all the requirements of a new Employee if you are rehired at a later date.

ELIGIBILITY AFTER TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT

Any change in the amount of your benefits caused by a change in class, change in salary, age reduction or amendment to the Policy will become effective on the effective date of the change. If the change results in an increase in the amount of insurance, you must be Actively at Work on that date. If you are not Actively at Work, the increase will take effect on the day you are again Actively at Work.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF CHANGE IN AMOUNT OF BENEFITS

If you are required to submit evidence of insurability satisfactory to Fort Dearborn Life Insurance Company, insurance in the amount for which We require such evidence will become effective on the date We determine that the evidence is satisfactory and We provide written notice of approval.

2. a holiday (except when such holiday is a scheduled work day);
3. a paid vacation;
4. any nonscheduled work day.

You may change your beneficiary at any time by completing a change request form, or a form accepted by Us, and sending it to the Policyholder. Your written request for change of beneficiary will not be effective until it is recorded by the Policyholder. After it has been so recorded, it will take effect on the later of the date you signed the change request form or the date you specifically requested. If you die before the change has been recorded, We will not alter any payment that We have already made. Any prior payment shall fully discharge Us from further liability in that amount.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY

If any benefits under this provision are to be paid to your estate, We may pay an amount not greater than $250 to any person We consider to be equitably entitled by reason of having incurred funeral or other expenses incident to your death. Any and all payments made by Us shall fully discharge Us in the amount of such payment.

If a beneficiary is a minor, or is not able to give a valid release for any payment of benefits made, We will not make payment until a claim is made by the person or entity which, by court order, has been granted control of the estate of such beneficiary. This provision does not prevent Us from making payment to or for the benefit of a minor beneficiary in accordance with the applicable state law.

- If no named beneficiary survives you or if you did not designate a beneficiary, We will pay the amount of insurance:
1. to your spouse, if living; if not,
 2. in equal shares to your then living natural or adopted children, if any; if none,

GROUP TERM LIFE INSURANCE BENEFIT (TX)

CONVERSION OF LIFE INSURANCE

Conversion if Eligibility Terminates:

You may convert to an individual policy of life insurance if your life insurance, or a portion of it, ceases because:

- 1. you are no longer employed by the Policyholder; or
- 2. you are no longer in a class which is eligible for life insurance.

In either of these situations, you may convert all or any portion of your life insurance which was in force at the date of termination.

Conversion if Policy is Terminated or Amended:

You may also convert to an individual policy of life insurance if your life insurance ceases because:

- 1. life insurance benefits under the Policy cease; or
- 2. the Policy is amended making him ineligible for life insurance; however, in either of these situations, you must have been insured under the Policy for at least five (5) years. The amount of insurance converted in either of these situations will be the lesser of:
 - 1. the amount of life insurance in force, less any amount for which you become eligible under this or any other group policy within 31 days after the date your life insurance ceased; or
 - 2. $10,000.

Conditions for Conversion: (amended by form no. FDL1-23-1100)

We must receive written application and the first premium for the individual life insurance policy within 31 days after insurance under the Policy ceases. No evidence of insurability will be required. The individual policy will be a policy of whole life insurance. It will not contain disability benefits, accidental death and dismemberment benefits or any other supplemental benefits. The premium for the individual policy will be based on:

- 1. Our current rates based upon your attained age on your nearest birthday; and
- 2. on the amount of the individual policy.

If application is made for an individual policy, the coverage under the individual policy will be effective on the day following the 31-day period during which you could apply for conversion. If you die during a period when you would have been entitled to have an individual policy issued to you and if you die before such an individual policy becomes effective, We will pay your beneficiary the greatest amount of group term life insurance for which an individual policy could have been issued, provided:

- 1. your death occurred during the 31-day period within which you could have made application; and
- 2. We receive proof of death.

If life insurance benefits are paid under the Policy, payment will not be made under the converted policy, and premiums paid for the converted policy will be refunded.

The payment of an Accelerated Death Benefit and the balance of the death benefit under this Policy shall constitute full settlement of the face amount of the Policy.

When the Accelerated Death Benefit is paid:

1. the amount of group term life insurance otherwise payable upon your death, is reduced by the amount of the Accelerated Death Benefit. Any portion of the death benefit remaining after the reduction of the death benefit due to payment of an Accelerated Death Benefit shall be paid upon the death of the Insured;
2. the amount of group term life insurance which could otherwise have been converted to an individual contract will be reduced by the amount of Accelerated Death Benefit; and
3. the premium due for group term life insurance will be calculated on the amount of such insurance remaining in force after deducting the amount of the Accelerated Death Benefit.

EFFECT ON INSURANCE

The Insured must elect the benefit in writing on a form that is acceptable to Us. The Insured must furnish proof that he is a Terminally Ill Insured, including a Physician's Statement, within 91 days of the notice of claim. If proof is not given within 91 days, the claim will not be reduced or denied if proof is given as soon as reasonably possible.

GENERAL PROVISIONS (TX)

ERISA INFORMATION STATEMENT

The benefits described in your certificate and this ERISA Information Statement (collectively the "Summary Plan Description" or the SPD) are insured by a Policy issued by Fort Dearborn Life Insurance Company. This SPD describes the provisions of the Plan in effect as of the Effective Date of the Policy. It is not the intention of the SPD to cover all situations that may arise, but to provide you with a general understanding of your benefits. In the case of any item not covered by the SPD, or in the event of any conflict between the SPD and the Policy, the Plan will always control. You should not rely on any oral explanation, description, or interpretation of the Plan because the written terms of the Plan will govern. Your right to any benefit depends on the actual facts and terms and conditions of the particular Plan; no rights accrue by reason of or arising out of any statement shown in or omitted from, this SPD.

A. ADMINISTRATION OF THE PLAN

The Plan Administrator is responsible for the administration of the Plan. The Plan Administrator has full discretionary authority and control over the Plan. This authority provides the Plan Administrator with the power to interpret the Plan and determine who is eligible to participate, to determine the amount of benefits that may be paid to a participant or his or her beneficiary, and the status and rights of participants and beneficiaries. The Plan Administrator also has the authority to prescribe the rules and procedures under which the Plan shall operate, to request information, and to employ or appoint persons to aid the Plan Administrator in the administration of the Plan.

Failure by the Plan or the Plan Administrator to insist upon compliance with any provisions of the Plans at any time or under any set of circumstances shall not operate to waive or modify the provision or in any manner render it unenforceable as to any other time or as to any other occurrence, whether the circumstances are or are not the same. No waiver of any term or condition of the Plan shall be valid unless contained in a written memorandum expressing the waiver and signed by the person authorized by the Plan Administrator to sign the waiver.

The Plan may be amended, terminated or suspended in whole or in part, at any time without the consent of the employees or beneficiaries. Any amendment, termination or suspension shall be executed according to the Plan. Any such authorization may be specific to the Plan or persons authorized to act on behalf of the Employer or may be general as to duties of such person. Except for termination or suspensions, any amendments affecting the Policy must also be approved in writing by an officer of Fort Dearborn Life Insurance Company (the "Insurer") and shall be effective as of the date agreed to, in writing by the Plan Sponsor and the Insurer. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this document, the Policy shall terminate according to the provisions in the Policy.

The Plan has other fiduciaries, advisors and service providers. The Plan Administrator may allocate fiduciary responsibility among the Plan's fiduciaries and may delegate responsibilities to others. Any allocation or delegation must be done in writing and kept with the records of the Plan. The Plan's life benefits are provided pursuant to an insurance policy issued to the Company. The time for decision may be extended for one additional 45 day period provided that, prior to the extension, Fort Dearborn notifies you in writing that an extension is necessary due to special circumstances, identifies those circumstances and gives the date by which it expects to render its decision. If your claim is extended due to your failure to submit information necessary to decide your claim on appeal, the time for your decision shall be tolled from the date on which the notification of the extension is sent to you until the date we receive your response to the request. The written decision will include specific references to the Plan provisions on which the decision is based and any other notice(s), statement(s) or information required by applicable law.

- If denial is based on medical judgement, either (i) an explanation of the scientific or clinical judgement for the determination, applying the terms of the Plan to your medical circumstances, or (ii) a statement that such explanation will be provided to you free of charge upon request.

As a participant in the Plan you are entitled to certain rights and protections under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 ("ERISA"). ERISA provides that all Plan participants shall be entitled to:

C. ERISA NOTICE OF YOUR RIGHTS

Examine, without charge, at the Plan Administrator's office and at other locations, such as work sites and union halls, all Plan documents, including insurance contracts, collective bargaining agreements and copies of all documents filed with the U.S. Department of Labor, such as detailed annual reports and Plan descriptions.

Obtain copies of all Plan documents and other Plan information upon written request to the Plan Administrator. The Plan Administrator may make a reasonable charge for the copies. Receive a summary of the Plan's annual financial report. The Plan Administrator is required to furnish each participant with a copy of this summary annual report.

In addition to creating rights for the Plan participants, ERISA imposes duties upon the people who are responsible for the operation of the employee benefit Plan. The people who operate your Plan, called "fiduciaries" of the Plan, have a duty to do so prudently and in the interest of you and other Plan participants and beneficiaries.

No one, including your employers, your union, or any other persons, may fire you or otherwise discriminate against you in any way to prevent you from obtaining a welfare benefit or exercising your rights under ERISA. If your claim for a welfare benefit is denied in whole or in part you must receive a written explanation of the reason for the denial. You have the right to have the Plan review and reconsider your claim. Under ERISA, there are steps you can take to enforce your rights. For instance, if you request materials from the plan and do not receive them within 30 days, you may file a suit in federal court. In such a case, the court may require the Plan Administrator to provide the materials and pay you up to $110 a day until you receive the materials, unless the materials were not sent because of reasons beyond the control of the Plan Administrator.

If you have a claim for benefits which is denied or ignored, in whole or in part, you may file suit in a state or federal court. If it should happen that Plan fiduciaries misuse the Plan's money, or if you are discriminated against for asserting your rights, you may seek assistance from the U.S. Department of Labor, or you may file suit in federal court. The court will decide who should pay costs and legal fees. If you are successful the court may order the person you have sued to pay these costs and fees. If you lose, the court may order you to pay these costs and fees, for example, if it finds your claim is frivolous.

If you have any questions about this statement or about your rights under ERISA, you should contact the nearest office of the Pension and Welfare Benefits Administration, United States Department of Labor, listed in your telephone directory or the Division of Technical Assistance and Inquiries, Employee Benefit Security Administration, United States Department of Labor, 200 Constitution Avenue, NW Washington DC 20210.

D. PARTICIPANT'S RIGHTS

This Plan shall not be deemed to constitute a contract between the Company and any participant or to be consideration or an inducement for the employment of any participant or employee. Nothing contained in this Plan shall be deemed to give any participant or employee the right to be retained in the service of the Company or to interfere with the right of the Company to discharge any participant or employee at any time regardless of the effect which such discharge shall have upon him or her as a participant of this Plan.
